“LYNN DAY” CELEBRATED AT SUFFOLK DOWNS

EAST BOSTON, MA – Ask Queenie earned the twenty-fifth victory of her stellar career with a 1 ½ length score in Saturday's $50,000 Last Dance Stakes at Suffolk Downs as the track celebrated “Lynn Day,” the fourth of eight “Commitment to Community” days honoring individuals and organizations that make a positive difference in eight area cities and towns.

Ridden by Josue Marcano for trainer Lori Lockhart, Ask Queenie recorded the eighteenth state-bred stakes win of her 55-race career. It is her second win in the Last Dance Stakes, having also captured it in 2006.

Prior to the day's first race, Rachel Dunnigan, a 2009 graduate of Lynn Classical High School, sang the national anthem as the award winning Lynn English High School ROTC honor guard presented the colors.

Lynn resident Cecilia Bermudez was recognized as the Suffolk Downs Employee of the Month for June. Bermudez has been a dedicated, honest and hard-working employee of AMB/OneSource, the track's housekeeping service, since 1993. She has been a resident of Lynn for the past eight years, raising her three sons.

The following Lynn organizations were recognized in the track's “Community Winner's Circle”: Girls Inc. of Lynn, Lynn Housing Authority & Neighborhood Development, Greater Lynn YMCA, Lynn Parks and Recreation Department, Boys & Girls Club of Lynn and the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Lynn.

The “Community Winner's Circle” was established last year by Suffolk Downs in a continuation of the track's long-standing community outreach program. Each “Community Winner's Circle” honoree is recognized by the track in a post-race winner's circle ceremony and with a contribution to their cause.

"We are thrilled to be a part of Suffolk Downs' community outreach with Lynn Day," said Mayor Chip Clancy, who was in attendance and presented a trophy to the winning connections of race seven, the City of Lynn Classic. “It was a fun-filled day for families and also a chance to give back to our community organizations."

The remaining schedule of “Commitment to Community” days at Suffolk Downs is as follows: Winthrop (July 25), Revere (August 1), Saugus (August 8) and East Boston (August 22).
